

Removing a Serious Obstruction

Gentle.
Dynamite and giant powder might answer admirably to remove obstructions from Hell Gate in East River, New York, but explosive measures in medication are ever attended with disastrous consequences. For instance, the bowels cannot be violently drenched with safety, nor is there the slightest necessity for so doing. On the contrary, it is most unwise. None but the purified adherents of antiquated theories in medicine advise or sanction such a course. To weaken the intestines—the effect of drastic purgation—is to compromise the health of the entire system. With Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, the bowels are relaxed, not by a convulsion of nature approximating to an eruption of St. Peter's, but gradually, sensibly, without wrenching or distressing. The liver and stomach, as well as the bowels, are toned and benefited by it.

Ladies
In delicate health and all who suffer from habitual constipation, will find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, more easily taken, and more beneficial in effects than any other remedy. It acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, kidneys, liver and stomach, and does not sicken or debilitate. For sale by Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child she cried for Castoria. When she became a woman, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

Shortness of Breath.
DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY should be taken at once when slight exertion or a hearty meal produces shortness of breath or a pain in the region of the heart. At all druggists, or J. Mack & Co., 9 and 11 Front St., S. F.

Are important problems, the former depending greatly on the latter. Everyone is familiar with the healthy properties of fruit, and no one can afford to be sick and miserable while the pleasant California concentrated liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, may be had of our enterprising druggist, Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nev.

Brace Up.
You are feeling drowsy, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with head ache, you are indigestive, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up, but not with stimulants, spicing medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whiskey, and stimulate you for an hour, and leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters and only 50 cents a bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's Drug Store.

Unnecessary Misery.
Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. Hamburg Fig was prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents all druggists, J. J. Mack & Co., Proprietors, San Francisco.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloopy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1887

SIX-PAGE EDITION.

HONORABLE J. SLOTT FASSETT, nephew of C. M. Fassett, of this place, has just been renominated by acclamation to represent in the State Senate, the twenty-seventh District of the State of New York. Among other eloquent words in his speech of acceptance he said the following: "The Republican party, however, goes to the people this Fall, asking for a continuance of confidence and a return to power not only upon a matchless record in the State as well as the nation, but upon a peerless State ticket and a declaration of purposes and principles sharply and unmistakably defined. As it always has been, so it is and will be, the party of purpose and progress. It has left to its opponents the shuffling and huckstering policy of expediency and negation. It is a party of positive and aggressive convictions. Its pathway is not strewn with wrecks of the abandoned platforms, broken vows and discarded policies, but adorned with pledges fulfilled and with deeds that make our history glorious. Labor emancipated, humanity elevated, industry protected—these are Republican watchwords. They ring out in clarion tones from the Saratoga platform. The Republican party takes no steps backward. Its face is set toward the morning and not the evening. It will succeed because it deserves success. Our State ticket is virile with all the strength of young manhood and inspiring with all the magic of spotless personal integrity."

By a glance at the table under the head of "Agricultural Pursuits and Possessions, and the Extent of Them," published in these columns, one can get some idea of what is done on the ranches in this vicinity. Take, for instance, the smallest ranch mentioned there, that of Mrs. C. Thomas. Besides the growth of 30 head of stock she realizes this year from her little ranch of 80 acres $1,950. The Lake ranch yields $15,000. If this ranch were cut up into 80 acre tracts it would support thirteen families at least, and as it is one of the best ranches in the valley, if cultivated as small ranches are cultivated, would yield, instead of $15,000, $25,000 annually. There are in this table, although incomplete, many other statistical items of interest to ranchers and others.

GENERAL IRISH advocates the storing in the mountains the excess of water for use through the dry season, the tapping of mountain lakes and the sinking of artesian wells. His arguments in favor of such enterprises seem conclusive, and his advocacy of them will be seconded by the people of the whole State.

The action taken last evening relative to the treatment of shipwrecked men by the Nevada Live Stock Association was timely, and it is hoped will have the desired effect.

THE PIKES.
They Capture the Hearts of a Dozen of the Fair Vases.

The Indians who went to California some time since to help gather the hop crop over there, have been contributing not a little to the amusement of the visitors to the State Fair. About 20 of them entered a grand pony race last Saturday which was a big drawing card. Johnson Slides made a characteristic harangue to the assembled multitude in which he dwelt glowingly on the many virtues, etc., of his tribe. The $200 purse was divided between the contestants. Johnson at once made arrangements to have the Indians go to Stockton to-day and give an exhibition football game in the forenoon and an Indian pony race in the afternoon at the Park. The management agree to give the Indians two bullocks, plenty of flour, furnish transportation and pay them $200 in money.

Our Boys and Girls.
Journal: Where are the Reno boys and girls? The space in the Pavilion for boys and girls under sixteen is not as well filled as it should be.

We were not aware that our boys and girls were to be placed on exhibition. Of course they will be inspected, but they draw the line at being shown off in a glass case side by side with the big potato from Pizen Switch or the mammoth squash from Beowawe.

A Blood-Curdling Murder.
The Reno River Revue has unfortunately published this: "It is rumored that another game of baseball is on the tapis."

A Bloodthirsty Barber on a Rampage.

[PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

The Yacht Race.
New York, Sept. 30. 11:50 A. M.—The yachts are out of sight. When last seen they were heading, east north-east and going very rapidly with a gap widening a little in favor of the Yankee. Volunteer, after the start, beat to windward in great style, and through the drifting fog could be seen gaining on the Scotch cutter. Ten minutes after the start she was well to windward, and was pulling away from the Thistle wind, east northeast and blowing 24 miles per hour. Great rain and fog this morning had the effect of almost entirely driving away crowds from the excursion steamers that were to accompany the yachts Thistle and Volunteer on the second race of the series for the America Cup. There was no spot on dry land from which the course of the yachts could be watched. They were to go 20 miles straight out to sea and return. The Associated Press following the racers, and had on board a plentiful supply of carrier pigeons. Unlike the day of the first race, a few boats were in sight, and the prospect of interference from that source was reduced to a minimum. When the yachts crossed the starting line, the Thistle was seen to windward. Both racers were heading east northeast, sailing on a course laid towards Par Rockaway, and the Volunteer was outpacing the Scotchman. They were about 500 yards apart. LONG BEACH, Sept. 30. 12:52 P. M.—The yachts are now about one mile south of the turning stake, and Volunteer leads by about a mile. NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—At 1:15 the Volunteer turned the stake boat. She appeared to take the swell with a better feeling than the Thistle, the latter continually burying her bows. SANDY HOOK, 3 P. M.—The Thistle turned the stake boat at 2:42, seventeen minutes after the Volunteer. The wind had fallen to 20 miles per hour. LONG BEACH, 3:48 P. M.—The Volunteer leads by two miles, but the Thistle is gaining. SANDY HOOK, Sept. 30.—The Volunteer won, finishing at 4:24. The din of whistles and booming of guns continued for fully five minutes. The Thistle finished at 4:34.

Grand Army Matters.
St. Louis, Sept. 30.—This afternoon the evacuation of the city by the rank and file of the G. A. R. was complete, except in the case of the Californians. They were still quartered in the armory near their stores of delicious fruit, which, on Saturday night, are to be given away to the public. Already tens of thousands of people have filed down the aisles of fruit between the six tables, each 200 feet long.

The main interest was centered in the election of Commander. General Slocum, who has been so prominently mentioned for the office, was at the Exposition hall mingling with the delegates. Major Warner, also a candidate, was making no personal effort, but leaving the canvass in the hands of his friends. The Committee on Resolutions reported back the resolutions offered by Vandervoort in regard to the veto of the dependent pension bill and the pension to Mrs. Logan. The committee recommended the adoption of the part that referred to Mrs. Logan's pension and the rejection of the balance.

A Desperate Borrower.
SAN JOSE, Sept. 28.—At 10 o'clock this morning Louis Bartel entered the barber shop of H. Holworth, demanding a loan of money, which was refused. Bartel then fiercely attacked Holworth. During the struggle Bartel secured a pistol from Holworth's pocket. The latter fled to a rear room as Bartel fired, and the ball went through a partition into the street, narrowly missing a lady passing. Mansfield, who has a store adjoining, ran in and Bartel fired at him, missing him. The desperate man was then secured and is now in jail. He was formerly a bootblack in San Francisco.

The President's Tour.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The train with President Cleveland and party on board left Baltimore and Potomac station at 10 this morning. About fifty persons gathered in front of the White House this morning to witness President and Mrs. Cleveland depart. The weather, which has been rainy and disagreeable for three days, cleared off beautifully just in time to verify proverbial the good luck of the President.

The Tennessee Prohibition Amendment.
NASHVILLE, Sept. 29.—By latest returns 125,000 votes, representing half the probable total vote of the State, have been reported, and the majority against prohibition is about 7,000. Much depends on the back counties and the fate of the amendment is still in doubt.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.
—Polydore de Keyser was elected today Lord Mayor of London.
—Courtney beat Bubar in a boat race yesterday on the Esquimaux river for a $2,000 purse.
—The threatened general strike of the window glass makers at Pittsburgh has been averted by a compromise.
—George expects to carry New York City this year, and perhaps the State also. There is no poverty about his expectations.

John Swinton has declined the nomination of the Progressive Labor party for Secretary of State of New York on account of his health. J. E. Hall has been chosen.

William Kemp fell from a load of hay on Layton's ranch last Tuesday. The wagon wheel passed over his stomach. It is feared he is injured internally, and the physicians have small hopes of his recovery. There have been a number of drunken Indians in town for the past few days.

Eureka County.
[Sentinel, Sept. 29.]
In the case of the People vs. George W. Lewis, indicted for murder by an Elko county Grand Jury, which on Monday last, in the District Court, postponed until November 14, 1887. M. Lay arrested some cattle belonging to Nick Waldvogel for eating his grass, etc., and the owner was obliged to pay Lay $10 before he would release the same. John Zinkstein "skipped" out of Eureka last Monday with $500 belonging to a young lady "friend." Her song is: "Will he ever return?" C. C. Strong, a saloon-keeper, locked a respectable but insane lady in his room at Pleasanton Friday evening and kept her there all night. Strong was given 24 hours to leave town, and he left.

Elko County.
[Times-Review, Sept. 29.]
A number of Northern Belle Isle miners are indulging in a lay-off, pending the erection of a new gallows frame. At the meeting of the Tuscarora Tunnel Company last Saturday evening the old Board were re-elected as follows: C. McMaster, President; A. Leichter, Secretary; R. Johnson, Treasurer; E. L. McMahon and C. A. Richardson, Directors. The man who was arrested for setting fire to the depot at Battle Mountain was discharged. County Commissioner Bird is taking in the State Fair.

Gus Weber, who had charge of a force of men on the Curtis ore dump for the Manhattan Company, at Austin, fell dead at his home, while eating supper, from hemorrhage of the lungs, last Friday evening between six and seven o'clock. He leaves a wife and three children. [Independent, Sept. 29.] The Secret Valley Sunday School closed its Summer session with a picnic Saturday, Sept. 17th. C. A. Nichols, of Secret Valley, raised from this year two oxen, one of which measures 4½ inches, and the other 4¼ inches in diameter, the two weighing 1½ pounds.

[Sentinel, Sept. 29.]
Increased traffic over the C. P. Railroad will necessitate the laying of a double track in a few years. Hub Parker killed fifteen deer on a recent trip to Shoshone Falls, Idaho.

Ormsby County.
[Carson Tribune, Sept. 29.]
The members of the Presbyterian Church are making arrangements to establish a college in Carson to be conducted under their auspices. The Carson exhibit at the Reno Pavilion surpasses any other and our good ladies are receiving the plaudits of all visitors.

White Pine County.
[Fleche Record, Sept. 29.]
We will fervently bestow our blessing on the heads of many "miners," who talk of leaving on account of dull times, if they will be good enough to fulfill their threats of deserting the town. Southern Lincoln county is a good cotton producer, having raised 45 acres this season. The working force on the Yuba mine has been increased during the week.

Storey County.
[Report, Sept. 29.]
A number of the Order of Chosen Friends was organized at Carson by Grand Councilor Deputy of the State, S. Porteous. Eighteen charter members were sworn in to-day at the County Hospital. Deceased was a native of New York, and about 56 years of age. A prominent physician says the scarlet fever scare is rapidly passing away. There are but few cases left and they are all convalescing. [Enterprise, Sept. 30.] Yesterday a force of men were put on the site of the old Consolidated Virginia battery mill with a complete outfit for sluicing. All the surface dirt on the site of the old mill will be sluiced for quicksilver and amalgam. The work of sluicing was watched with considerable interest by a crowd of old-time California miners.

Truckee Items.
[Republican, Sept. 29.]
The quail have all gone over the mountains. Wood has been sold here this week for $2.50 a cord. There is but very little sickness in our town. We have the healthiest climate in the world. There are still a number of tourists at Tahoe. It is lovely there now and fishing is excellent. The millmen complain that it is difficult to get cars to transport lumber and orders are coming in faster than can be filled. The water in the Truckee river is so low that the Truckee Lumber Co. find it impossible to get logs down. There is no surplus water in Tahoe, and the old residents say that they have never before seen the lake so low.

The Forest King mine, in which several of our Truckee citizens are interested, is working 40 men and the mill will be ready to run in about two weeks. The mine is located near Gold Lake and is a promising property. Attention, Stockmen!

DR. FISHERMAN'S CARBOLIZED ALKALINE LOTION IS TO-DAY AHEAD of all other preparation for the merciful care of STOCK. As an external remedy it will be found unequalled for application to Sprains, Sores, (new or old), Alkali Sores, Bruises, Galls, Swellings, Scalds, Burns, Rheumatism, Mange, Itch and Skin Diseases. It will strengthen and make straight weak knees and ankles. It is invaluable as an internal remedy for coughs, colds, congestion or fever, and we sincerely believe it is just the right remedy to use during the BRANDING SEASON, as it will at once take out the fire and seal the wound over. We believe it will prevent the marks and brands from becoming fly-blown. This lotion does not contain tarpenite; consequently does not torture the beast for hours. Price, ONE DOLLAR per full quart bottle, which makes half a gallon of lotion. Please give it a trial.

Valuable Testimonials.

PROSPEROUS RANCHERS AND FERTILE FARMS!

Unrivalled Progress of the Washoe Valley--Steamboat Springs.

RANCHERS.

W. H. Gould's ranch, a mile from town, is a very desirable one. Eight or ten years ago he bought it, as many others bought their ranches, in rocks and sagebrush. It is now all enclosed, and in a high state of cultivation, the fence being chiefly a fine stone wall. Three miles of this everlasting fence, four and one-half feet and two and one-half feet broad at bottom and top, respectively, and four and two-thirds feet high, are found on this ranch, the building of which, with the removal of the sagebrush, doubled the original cost of the land, which is now worth more than a hundred dollars an acre. Mr. Gould is a first-class farmer, and one of Nevada's most public-spirited men. He is proud of his adopted State, seeks to promote her honor, and the advancement of the locality in which he lives, and is deserving of honorable mention in his country; to which, however, his modesty and un-ambitiousness makes him wholly indifferent. He affirms his conviction that Nevada is to be one of the great States; and, if all Nevadans, in thought and action, will coincide, Nevada will become a great State. Mr. Gould is also one of the stockholders in the Bank of Nevada, of which we shall speak in the course of these notes.

Miss Crocker states that ague is unknown in the Glendale section of the valley. Mrs. Blasdel reports only three cabins in the valley when she came to it in 1861, and it is alleged that one Mr. Ing, a miner, was the first to begin a settlement in the valley, in 1860.

Mr. O. C. Ross owns a stock range of eleven hundred acres at Red Rock, twenty-five miles northwest of Reno. Mr. Ross has produced on the home ranch as high as eleven tons of potatoes to the acre, worth, at a cent a pound two hundred and twenty dollars.

Mr. Frost is said to be the father of irrigation in Truckee Meadows, having constructed, and turned the waters from the river into, the first ditch.

Mr. Steele states that such are the winters in his locality of the Meadows, he does not have to feed his stock during that season.

Mr. Calligan adds sixty or seventy calves to his stock cattle each year.

He has a stock range at Pyramid Lake, and has on it several hundred cattle, and seventy-five head of horses. In addition to farming, he is engaged in buying and selling stock, and in butchering.

Mrs. Norcross has ascertained that blue-grass, which thrives in Washoe soil, will, when firmly rooted, kill out the troublesome foxtail. This is worth knowing, especially, since blue-grass is so good a crop as to yield, under favorable circumstances, as much as two tons to the acre, though it requires much more water than alfalfa.

Mrs. Howard designs reservoiring water in the gorges among the hills, when there is a flush, and utilizing it on her lands in a time of scarcity.

Such an enterprise strikes the key-note of Nevada's great demand, which is water, and already the good work of constructing reservoirs has commenced in an advantageous position with respect to the land to be irrigated. Mrs.
Howard is a lady of practical ideas, a good business manager, and some of the sterner sex who find to ridicule woman's administrative ability, may well look to their laurels.

The Ward Land and Stock Company--This business is on a mammoth scale. The Company's range, lying in Lassen and Modoc counties, California, and in Washoe county, Nevada, consists of fourteen thousand acres, and has a capacity of sustaining six thousand to eight thousand head of stock.
It yielded this year eighteen hundred tons of timothy, red-top, and natural grass hay, and will double that amount in another year. The business consists in buying and selling and raising stock, which finds a market in the mountain districts, and in San Francisco and Oakland.

Mr. M. E. Ward has been in the business a score of years, and has acquired wealth. He is also the Vice-President of the Bank of Nevada.

The Lake Ranch is one of the most desirable in the State. Of the entire body of land, all good, there are seven hundred and fifty acres of the very choicest. The place is supplied with a superabundance of water for irrigation, commanding all of Evans creek, and a ditch from the Truckee fifteen miles long, and sells four hundred inches, two thousand dollars' worth, of water, annually. The place is highly improved in respect to the fine residence, and its surrounding embellishments of grove and orchard and ample barns, and other buildings. This property is located five miles from Reno, on the Virginia road. Mr. Geo. H. Douglas, an intelligent and clever gentleman, is the superintendent of this farm. He has an interesting family of ten children, and has recently been bereft of his wife. In the hands of Mr.
Douglas and his amiable family, this farm is a success.

A. T. Rice's one hundred and twenty milk cows include his son's interest of thirty-five cows. The firm have a monopoly of the milk business in Reno, selling milk, pure, at fifteen cents to hotels, and twenty cents to families, per gallon. Their sales are two hundred and ten gallons daily, and will be six hundred and thirty gallons daily, during the time of the State Fair.
The grade of milk cows on the Rice ranch is a mixture of Short Horn and Galloway, the last-named being a Scottish breed. It requires four men and four wagons to do the work of this milk business. Mr. Rice is a badge of good humor and witty quip, and is blended as to make him a favorite among the people. Mr. Rice is the owner of a fine bay stallion colt, pedigreed through the celebrated Plumaz and David Hill (or Black Hawk). The colt is two years old, weighs nine hundred and fifteen pounds, and cost three hundred and fifty dollars.

Stephen E. Ede, besides his home property, has also a dairy ranch in Sierra Valley, near Loyalton, where he keeps fifty-four cows, fifty head of horses, puts up two hundred and fifty tons of hay, and uses artesian water for the stock.

Mr. James Sullivan has the reputation of having produced, on his fine ranch, the sack of wheat that, at the late New Orleans Exposition, took the first premium, not only for the State of Nevada, but also for the world. He did the same thing on a bale of hay sent from his ranch to the same Exposition.

The State Fair Property--The grounds heretofore used for the State Fair exhibits, is private property, having been leased by the State for its use
Now, and henceforth, the State is the owner of its own grounds, having purchased, for fourteen thousand dollars, eighty acres adjacent to the University grounds. This plot is in a very beautiful and commanding situation, and the work of extensive improvements is to be at once commenced.

The indispensable alfalfa plant is said to have been introduced into the Truckee Meadows in 1863. It is claimed that the vegetable product of Nevada, for the present year, will double that of last. This argues that, "as her day, so shall her strength be." Her demand for broader operations in agriculture, will be continuously met by increasing facilities in irrigation.

LOCATION.

This institution, founded in 1860, is situated near the village of San Mateo, which is noted for its beauty and seclusion; also for the equability and healthfulness of its climate. It is within twenty miles of San Francisco by rail, and easily accessible by carriage, and therefore particularly suited to parents in the city, who with their sons within reach in case of emergency. Trains of the Southern Pacific Company frequently, allowing visitors to go and return several times daily.

DISCIPLINE.

The Principal exercises a fatherly care and discipline over the pupils, seeking to influence and kindly lead rather than drive. The military discipline is used in a modified form, sufficient to secure regular exercise and erect carriage by drill, and habits of promptness and obedience, with orderly movements in the school-room.
Experience has proved that the military drill, thus modified, is beneficial and not objectionable. Particular attention is given to the morals and manners of the pupils by both principal and teachers, it being considered an indispensable part of their training to make them gentlemen as well as scholars. This is the atmosphere of the school.

SESSIONS.

The school year is divided into two sessions of twenty weeks each. The Easter session begins about January 5th; the Trinity session about July 20th, with a summer vacation of eight weeks, and a winter vacation of four weeks. Pupils will be received at any time.

 The illustrations show the great superiority of the Rear-folding Seat over all others in Durability, Economy of Space, and Tendency to Folding, and, as the above, becoming uncomfortable, or totally unfit for use.  One great objection to hinged seats is that they wear so as to become noisy in folding, and sag, as the above, becoming uncomfortable, or totally unfit for use. The above desks are set the "regulation" distance apart, which distance, together with the sag of the seat, induces the AWEKWARD and UNHEALTHFUL POSITION of the pupil.
 From photograph of the best (7) Hinge-Seat Desks; in use less than five years.
 The Automatic Seat, being supported in front, can NEVER SAG, and as the seats fold as the pupils rise, and remain folded out of the way until they take their seats again, the desks are set much nearer together. The above are set the right distance apart, securing an EASY, GRACEFUL and HEALTHFUL POSITION of the pupil.

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1897.
 and investigations in a pamphlet from which we should be glad to quote, were the document in our possession. We commend its perusal to every Nevada. Gen. Irish is authority for the statement that the two great interests of Nevada, viz: the stock interest and the agricultural, have, in the past, been greatly neglected. He says that, in many parts of the State, adjacent to the finest agricultural lands, there are indications of various streams having channeled the earth in the winter season. Says that there are excellent facilities for reservoiring this excess of water among the hills. That the clouds must be utilized. That artesian water must be procured. The mountain lakes must be tapped, etc. On all these points, Gen. Irish is sound, for his suggestions are all practical. He further states that, around the foothills adjacent to valuable farming lands in certain portions of the State, various springs are found, which are always indications of artesian water. That, in fact, a spring is itself a sort of artesian well. That being the case, it is only necessary to perforate the stratum that confines the reservoir of the spring, to obtain subterranean water. "These interests," says the Surveyor General, "have been utterly neglected." "Scarcely anything has been done to develop the agricultural resources of the State." "Nothing has been done to determine whether the rainfall in any given portion of the State, is sufficient or insufficient for agricultural purposes, provided the water is necessary. And in order to success, a perfect knowledge of these things is necessary. If these wise suggestions are heeded, the GAZETTE believes that the stigma of "sagebrush and coyotes," will speedily be removed.

THE METEOROLOGICAL CONDITIONS
 Of this region are all that could be desired. There being no such extremes of temperature in Summer and Winter, as are peculiar to the larger portion of our country, there are few pulmonary and febrile diseases, or of those human ills common either to bleak, heavy atmospheres, or to tropical and miasmatic climates.

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS
 Surpass anything of a like nature to be found among the Sierra Mountains. There are thought to be more salts in solution, and a greater variety of mineral and medicinal properties in the waters of the many springs aggregated here, than can elsewhere be found in any region. Sulphur, soda, magnesia, iron, lime, alum, borax, and common salt, are easily detected in these waters; and, doubtless, a number of other salts will be found by analysis. This series of springs perforates a range of low hills for a mile and a half, and for long distances, the earth is cleft longitudinally with the range of hills, uniting many of the springs in a vast boiling fissure, the fretting and seething and rumbling of which, tell of the awful agitation in the hidden, fiery chambers beneath. There are several of these fissures running parallel along the range, together with many isolated springs, from all of which, the jets and lines and walls of steam, viewed in the evening or morning twilight, present a scene of peculiar novelty and interest. There are cold springs and boiling hot springs, side by side, and only a few inches apart. There is one pair of this sort, where the hot water of one occasionally splashes over, in ebullition, into the cold water spring. There is another pair of boiling cauldrons, about six feet deep, and two and a half feet across the mouth, with well-defined perpendicular rock walls, one of which is made the scalding tub of the entire community; for, here, the hog-raisers of this locality bring their slaughtered porkers and immerse them in nature's pot to remove the hair. Of the truth of this statement, the visitor is convinced by report of the guide, and by the large quantity of hog hair around the spring. There is another spring, with water as hot as one can comfortably drink it, known as Chicken Soup Spring—so called, because the water, when salted and peppered simply, has a striking flavor of chicken soup. This is really palatable, when so treated, and very healthy. But the principal hot spring is the one under the bath-house, known and distinguished as Steamboat Spring. This spring is twenty feet deep and seven feet square at the top. It has the following history, viz: After its discovery, many years ago, by now unknown parties, it fell into oblivion until the time of the opening up of the Comstock, about which time the springs were located. Some twenty years ago, one Mr. Cullen and partner were prospecting to ascertain the depth of this cauldron, when accidentally Mr. Cullen fell into the seething pool, and was literally cooked in it, the flesh dropping from his bones when he was taken out. From that time, it had a checked and precarious history, all the investors in the property failing to make it remunerative, and each, in turn, relinquished it to a successor, till at last, about four years ago, the spring became extinct, and so remained, until the present firm broke its cemented covering by exploding under it a dynamite cartridge. After the awful rush, to a great height, of the hot water, and the great volume of steam and intense heat, and the shower of gravel and sand, and general wreckage, had all subsided, the very element was confined, and made subservient to the pleasure and profit of those availing themselves of its health-conducting properties. This fine resort for health and pleasure is kept by the popular firm of Murphy & Farnum, who have expended much labor and money to make it as attractive as possible to all health-seeking and pleasure-loving people. Its appointments and furnishings are all that the most fastidious could desire. There are steam baths, tub baths, plunge baths, and shower baths, of any temperature desired, and in number to meet the fullest demand. There are two bath houses, with an ample number of neat rooms and clean beds, besides several cozy and appropriately-furnished cottages for families wishing to spend a season at the Springs. There is, also, within a few feet of the main bath-house, a commodious and well-furnished hotel, with inviting dormitory, and a table furnished with the best that each season has in store. The entire outfit has a capacity for two hundred guests. Other attractions are to be found in the adjacent gymnasium, tennis alley, and skating and dancing pavilion, in a mile of pretty park-like grounds adorned with walnut, locust, poplar and maple, and other attractive vegetation. There are also restaurant and bar appended to the hotel, with parlors and musical instruments, and accommodating attendants, and every effort is made to minister to the varied tastes and wants of diverse human cravings. Taking it, all in all, what region of the country can compare with Truckee Meadows in a sanitary point of view? These noted Springs are situated on Steamboat Creek, about twelve miles from Reno, on the line of the V. & T. R. R., and are easily reached from all points. When these waters, in their composition, are thoroughly understood, we think they will prove to be one of nature's finest dispensaries.

UNRIVALED PROGRESS.
 Twenty years ago there were no good houses abroad in Truckee Meadows; and no trees, save a fringe of willows along the Truckee. Now, hand-some residences and groves and orchards loom up all over the valley, and thousands of cattle and horses are grazing where once existed only rocks and sagebrush. What a marvelous change greets our eyes, as we stand on this eminence (the University grounds), and behold what wonders have been wrought in this section in the last ten years! As, at that date, we came from Long Valley to the brow of the hills overlooking the Truckee Meadows, we saw little else but apparent barrenness and desolation brooding over this region. We repeat, what a change breaks upon our vision! Rocks and sagebrush chaotically disseminated, now transformed into rock-walled and flower-verdant fields of golden grain and luxuriant vegetation, with trees crowning the eminences and lining the highways and lawns, with sleek cattle browsing upon the rich pasturage, the busy hum of machinery in manufactories, the minareted and turret-crowned public edifices, the flourishing public schools, college, seminary, and university here located, throwing a lustre of prosperity and glory over the locality, and thus lifting it into a picturesque scenery and flowing fountains and singing birds, are some of the triumphs of a single decade of years. While all beyond is a mental vista of beauty and gladness.

San Jose and Santa Clara County Real Estate
Rare Chance for Speculation in Property that is Steadily Rising.

The heavy demand now being made for Santa Clara Valley farms and lots in the City of San Jose is making prices rise steadily and affords a chance seldom offered to invest in a desirable location at prices that are certain of an advance.
 Investments in Santa Clara Valley are more reasonable at present prices than at any other locality in the State of California when advantages of railroad shipment, rich soil, educational facilities, unequalled public improvements in respect to roads, sewers and public buildings, healthfulness and climate, are considered, which alone makes them certain and desirable. We offer both
